

FRANCO BIANCO (Live! & DJ Set)

Since his first steps, Franco Bianco has been related to music and since then he has polished a personal sound. Though he is an electronic musician orientated to the dance floor, his work covers from ambient or music to listen at home, to techno music merged with folk, country or tango. That's why he has been mentioned as the Danny Boyle of electronic music by some European media.

Every year, from November until the end of December, he organizes a South American tour. He has played in Ecuador, Colombia, Mexico, Uruguay, Dominican Republic and in Argentinean mega festivals like Telecom Personal Fest (2004 edition) as well as the last 3 editions of Creamfields Buenos Aires (2008, 2009 and 2010). In Europe, he also played at the well known Circle of Love Festival, in Germany (2010 edition). (<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DR1uUhiYeaE>)

Settled in Switzerland, his music took him on worldwide tours (from Australia to Lebanon, through Japan and Egypt), with more than 170 presentations in 27 different countries in the last 4 years. In Europe there have been queues to see his shows and in countries like Cyprus he is a referent of the electronic music scene. His YouTube videos and social networking pages have great amount of visits, and he frequently does interviews for local media of the countries he is visiting. His vinyl records (the last two being sold out) are played by international artists like Argentinean Hernan Cattaneo, French Laurent Garnier or mythical American DJ Danny Tennaglia, among others. Within his next projects, is worth mentioning a vinyl with remix versions from singer-songwriter Jorge Drexler (winner of an Oscar), which he produced together with Nacho Benedetti. This important project will also include the remixes of Mike Shannon and Jesper Dahlback. After the launch of this vinyl, Benedetti & Bianco LIVE! will be touring during September 2011, to present their astonishing new LIVE! Act.
