

Bloody Mary

Biography English

Always on the look out for new sounds and fresh music, the sets of this french-born berlin-based dj are fine example of what is happenind at the moment with this explosion of the minimal scene adding to hit her very own techy touch.

she generously expresses her love for the German sound every time, she takes the decks. bloody mary grew up in the region of aix en provence.

her favorited musical genre was new wave until she went to her fisrt rave party and discovered the world of electronic music.this revelation inspired her to give it a go herself and did her first gig in Marseille only one year after acquiring her first pair of turntables. bloody mary soon got booked all over the south of france establishing herself as a strong figure on the eletro/techno scene - docs des suds (marseille), splash festival, dragonbal festival ..

In 2005 her move to Berlin has taken her career to an International level.

She regulary plays in various cities and clubs in Germany (Watergate Berlin, Harryklein Munich ..) and Europe (The end London, Rex Club Paris, Cassero Bologna, ... and she still continues to play in France where she used to hold a monthly residency in 2005 at Studio88 (Aix en Pce). The future will also be a variety of productions.

2006 : Having focused on her Djing career, she has set up her studio to make tracks that will go along the line of her favorite label !

2007: As producer, second release on Sender records in addition to remix for Nomor records. As DJ, she extents her territory which now includes South America (Mexico, Ecuador, Colombia ..) and North America (NYC).
